

HAY BEACH PROPERTY OWNERS ASSOCIATION

2015 SURVEY RESULTS

Membership: 105
28% Return (29)

DEER & TICK

Impact of 4-posters on tick-borne diseases:
50% felt it had no or little impact
50% felt it had impact or exceed expectations

Impact of culling the herd on deer population and/or tick borne diseases:
64% felt it had an impact
36% felt it had no impact

Individuals of family members suffering from tick borne disease:
50% have never had a tick borne disease
50% reported having tick borne disease
-only 4 (13%) have contracted the disease during 2014 from those answering the survey.

Opinion regarding Permethrin
39% neutral
29% support the use of Permethrin - 7% of them apply Permethrin to their property
36% are against the use of Permethrin

WATER QUALITY

Local government safeguarding quality of water
58% felt they were not doing enough
39% felt they were doing enough

Experiencing potable water issues on property
100% no problems

New construction requiring alternative waste treatment systems
52% support requiring modernized waste water treatment systems
25% need more information

Responsibility for providing potable water if water quality problem develops 33% feel Shelter Island Town should be responsible 44% feel Suffolk County should be responsible
15% feel it's the individual homeowner's responsibility
22% want more information (some duplicate responses)

Support of turf irrigation options

29% support a ban on all irrigation

25% support grandfathering existing systems and a ban on all additional systems

32% support irrigation systems with cisterns

14% support no ban or restrictions on irrigation systems

10% need more information (multiple responses)

REFUSE COLLECTION

Placing refuse containers at the street (curbside)

89% support no curb side collection

Establishing guidelines by Shelter Island Town Board

49% yes

35% not at all

16% undecided

26% would like more information (multiple responses)

CONSTRUCTION

Enforcement of building codes

70% feel it needs to be improved

30% feel it is good as it is

ASSOCIATION

Reaction to website design

80% felt it was helpful

50% felt it exceeded their expectations